

A very warm welcome to you!

Thank you for attending your instrumental taster session today. Whether you are already planning to join us for ongoing lessons, or just want to find out more about us, we hope we can give you all the information you need to make an informed decision about Coda.

WHAT HAPPENS NOW?

We hope you have enjoyed your taster session today and would like to book lessons on an ongoing basis. If the office/reception (the black door by the large Coda logo sign) is still open, then please just pop over and tell us how it went.

If it is out of office hours, we will get in touch with you to follow-up, or you can contact the office (tel 01425 276161 or email contact@coda.org.uk) to confirm.

The office hours are:

Monday to Thursday 10.00am - 6.00pm.

Until a booking is confirmed, this space remains open to other students. Spaces, especially at peak times, can be in high demand so we do recommend that if you would like this lesson time, please let us know as soon as possible so that we can allocate this to you.

If your taster session was not quite what you were looking for, then please also let us know. We are happy to arrange taster sessions with alternative tutors (availability allowing) until we find one who is absolutely suited to you.

If you need guidance on buying or hiring an instrument then please speak to your tutor.

HOW DO I PAY?

Where possible, we take payment for taster sessions in advance. If you have still to pay for your taster session, please visit the office/ reception when you attend.

If your session was outside office hours, you can either put the payment (labelled with your name) into the red, locked post box by reception or call us and we can take payment over the phone.

Once you confirm you would like to continue, we will generate an invoice for your lessons, which will then be passed to you by your tutor.

Coda Music and Arts Centre works to school term dates and lessons are booked and paid for in termly blocks.

ABOUT CODA

Coda teaches in a way that is both interesting and engaging and relevant to how you want to learn, be that traditional and classical or much more contemporary. The fantastic faculty of high-quality tutors range from very young, passionate teachers, to older, experienced tutors who will make learning enjoyable and rewarding.

Our talented team teach to the highest standard and provide a caring and supportive learning environment.

Outside classes, Coda offers the chance to enjoy a number of activities including workshops and performance opportunities (both in our regular informal evenings and at outside events).

As well as offering taster sessions (£5 for 20 minutes) on one-to-one instrumental tuition, we also offer free trial sessions for any of our groups and ensembles. Should you wish to try any of our groups, please just get in touch to arrange.

Please take a look at our website coda.org.uk where you will find full details of all the lessons, classes and courses available. Coda Music and Arts Trust is also an award-winning charity and you can also find out more about the transformative work we do across the local area on the website.

We are also on Facebook and Instagram, so please follow us on social media, as this is a great way to get the latest news and information.

Coda prides itself on providing a rewarding and positive environment and we hope you have enjoyed your experience today. Should you need any more information or just wish to discuss options, please get in touch.

We look forward to welcoming you back to Coda soon.
